We're Back!

After a long hiatus, the bulletin is back. Thanks for your patience. If you see anything that needs to be changed, or if you would like to submit something to the bulletin, email office@stjosephsj.org

Parish Updates

St. Joseph

Parish Hall - the parish hall was cleaned for the third time on Saturday, 1/26/19. Hopefully we'll pass inspection and can begin to put the hall back together. soon.

Church - Starting Monday, 1/28/19, there will be asbestos abatement in the Church. In the few places we have drywall, there is asbestos in the joint compound. The removal of materials should be completed before next weekend.

Rectory - the rectory is in the process of being sold. Please say a prayer that we can get a good price for it.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

We have applied for a permit to tear down Our Lady of Guadalupe. When we know the date, we'll put it on Facebook for anyone who wants to be there for a final farewell.

Catholic Sharing Appeal

This week you will be receiving a mailing about the Catholic Sharing Appeal. This year, the bishop is not expecting the parishes affected by the hurricane to meet their pledge goals. Many of us are in a difficult place financially because of the storm. But for those who are able to contribute, please do, to support the work of the Church in the panhandle.

Daily Mass this Week

Because there will be asbestos abatement in the church this week, daily Mass will be at the Sacred Heart Hospital Chapel. The Mass times will remain the same, only the location will change. There will not be Adoration following Mass on Friday.

Celebrate Faith

Rejoice in the Holy Spirit! That's is the theme for our diocese's bi-annual conference. The conference is free, so sign-up and come! It takes place February 9 at the Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort. The deadline to sign-up is January 28. More information can be found at ptdiocese.org.

*Fr. Chris made a mistake in a previous announcement: he will not be leading a break-out session

Our Lady of Guadalupe

Dear parishioners of Our Lady of Guadalupe,

I am so sorry we lost our church in hurricane Michael. You all, along with Fr. Phil, worked so hard to reopen that church and you were so dedicated to its upkeep and flourishing. The one thing I always tell people when they ask about Our Lady of Guadalupe is that the parishioners were some of the most dedicated and hard-working that I have met.

I do not know what is in the future for Our Lady of Guadalupe. We should meet soon to talk about it. For now your home parish is St. Joseph and you are so welcome here. I think that your dedication, added to that of the parishioners from Port St. Joe, has the potential to make a great combination in living and sharing the Gospel from Port St. Joe to Mexico Beach.

As for a meeting, let's plan to meet next Sunday, following Sunday Mass, at St. Joseph. There, you can simply share our thoughts about the future of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and I can share mine, after which I will set up a meeting with the bishop to get some plan for the future.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Fr. Chris
