Prayer

FAITH THAT ALL ARE CALLED TO MEET GOD IN PRAYER, AND THAT GOD GIVES THE GRACE WE NEED FOR THIS MEETING.

Whatever difficulties, resistance, or objections we may have, we must believe firmly that all people without exception, wise and ignorant, just sinners, well-balanced and deeply wounded, are called to an authentic life of prayer in which God will communicate himself to us. And since it is God who calls us, and he is just, he will give everyone the graces needed to persevere in mental prayer and make the life of prayer a deep, marvelous experience of communion with his inner life. The life of prayer is not reserved for a religious elite: it is for everyone. The widely held notion that “it isn’t for me--it’s for other people, who are holier or better than I am,” is contrary to the Gospel. Never mind the difficulties and weaknesses. God will give the strength we need.

From Time for God by Fr. Jacques Philippe
