Parish Status

St. Joseph

Parish Hall - Contractors came by last week to look at the hall and they are optimistic that we can start to restore it in the near future.

Church - We will hopefully get a new roof beginning February 25. We were scheduled to get one this week, but it looks like it is going to rain most of the week.

Rectory - It's still for sale! Please say a prayer that we can get it sold soon.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

After demolition crews finish their work at Our Lady of the Rosary in Panama City, they will begin work at OLG. Stay tuned for an exact date.

Religious Education

After a long post-storm hiatus, Religious Education begins again this Wednesday, February 20, at 6:00pm, in the parish hall. Food will be provided for the children

Altar Society

Ladies of the parish, whether you are a long standing parishioner or new to the church, come to our next meeting for food, fellowship, and goal setting. Share your talent and time with other members who together have the same mission: Glorifying God by maintaining the altar, sanctuary, and sacristy of our Lord's house. We will begin at 6:00 on Monday, February 18th, with a pot luck dinner and meeting to follow. Hope to see you there!

Counseling Available

Catholic Charities is offering free counseling this week to people affected by Hurricane Michael at St. John the Evangelist in Panama City.

Pastoral Council

In the coming weeks, we will be establishing a Pastoral Council at the parish.

The Pastoral Council will be an advisory and consultative group to help the pastor of the parish focus on and carry out its mission. It will consist of eight members: Five will be elected by parishioners, two will be appointed by the pastor, and one will be a member of the parish Finance Council.

The Pastoral Council is open to all active, year-round, members of St. Joseph and Our Lady of Guadalupe. It is essential that all members be prayerful, passionate about serving the Lord, love the Church, and open to cooperating with others.

Ordinarily, the Pastoral Council will meet every two months, but as we get things started, we will be meeting monthly. It is essential that members be able to make most, if not all, of the meetings.

Parishioners may nominate other parishioners or themselves for the pastoral council. Once a person is nominated, they will receive more detailed information about the Pastoral Council, so that they may prayerfully discern whether or not they should run.

Here is the schedule of how things will proceed:

February 9-10, 16-17: announce establishment of pastoral council

February 16-24: accept nominations for pastoral council

March 2-3: announce nominees to parish

March 9-10: vote for pastoral council at weekend Masses

March 16-17: announce members of pastoral council

Please keep this process in your prayers and prayerfully consider whether you or someone you know at the parish is being called to serve on this council.
