Ash Wednesday

In biblical times, it was common to sprinkle ashes on the head as a sign of repentance and humility. Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, which is the time we contemplate our relationship with God and identify the areas in our spiritual life that need work. The ashes are a physical reminder of our Lenten journey; by receiving the ashes on our heads and keeping them on throughout the day, we are recognizing that life passes away on earth. Therefore, we strive during Lent to turn away from sin, refocus our lives on following God's commandments, and look towards the Kingdom of Heaven.

Second Collection

Next weekend, we will take up the 140th annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish, religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Words for Thought

Attitude is everything. Pick a good one.
