Sunlight and Strength

A beautiful wall hanging made by Lydia Burns who is not from here but is the sister of a parishioner. The wall hanging was given to the church for its 100 year Anniversary. It has been hung in the hall over the piano. Thank you Lydia Burns for this beautiful gift, your time in making it and for thinking of us. The following is the note she included in the package.

"This wall hanging features a cross at its heart with leaves which radiate warmth and renewal. Surrounding the cross is vibrant turquoise, orange and yellow giving it energy, joy and warmth. I used a white background to make it shine more brightly and offer contrast and balance. The cross represents strength and comfort while bright colors remind me of sunlight breaking through the darkness. Created with love to bring warmth, peace, and hope to any space."
~ Lydia Burns

Holy Family Icon

Holy Family Icon by Mary Powathil, Iconographer, was donated by the Altar Society in honor of the St. Joseph Church Centennial. Special recognition of Altar Society members Angela Geekie for her time in research, communication and arrangement of the purchase and Barbara Eells for compiling the prayer intentions provided to Mary for praying during the writing process. The icon will hang in the candle alcove along with the St. Joseph and Our Lady of Perpetual Help icons.

The 'O'ΩN/ OWN on Jesus' halo is for "He Who is" - which is the answer that Moses received on Mt Sinai when he asked who was speaking.

The MP ΘΥ above and to the left of Mary is Theotokos or "God bearer" in Greek.

The 'O'Αγ ιος'Ιω σήφ - which it to the left of Mary and to the right of Joseph - means "O Holy Joseph".

Joseph is in brown to symbolize his humility.
